Design: Alfonso Fontal
2005

No la necesitaba, pero -¡por si acaso!- a lo largo de estos años a su lado le he deseado suerte innumerables veces. Tantas que he gastado la frase. Yo no me sirven las palabras. Por eso le dedico esta lámpara, este trébol de cuatro hojas particular, redondo y esbelto a la vez, desenfadado, lleno de luz, de vida...
Esa es la mejor suerte, la vida.

She didn't really need it but (just in case!) over the years with her I've wished her luck countless times. In fact, I've done it so often that I've worn the sentence out. Words are no use to me now. That's why I'm dedicating this light to her, this particular fourleaved clover, simultaneously round and slender, self-assured, full of light and life.
That's the best luck you can have: life itself.
